Survival

GLOBAL POLITICS AND STRATEGY

Survival, the bimonthly journal from The International Institute for Strategic Studies, is a leading forum for analysis and debate of international and strategic affairs. With a diverse range of authors, eight to ten articles per issue, plus thoughtful reviews and review essays, Survival is scholarly in depth while vivid, well-written and policy-relevant in approach. Shaped by its editors to be both timely and forward-thinking, the journal encourages writers to challenge conventional wisdom and bring fresh, often controversial, perspectives to bear on the strategic issues of the moment.

Survival features fully referenced articles that reflect serious scholarship without being overly academic in form. It stresses rigorous analysis and elegant expression to promote strategic dialogue of global scope, reflecting the international composition of its contributors and readership. It also features forums, exchanges and debates, shorter essays from a range of viewpoints, and authoritative review essays and reviews of new books in the field of global politics and strategy from a team of illustrious contributing editors.

Impact Factor

Survival is highly ranked in the Thomson Reuters
